

WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY
BOARD OF GOVERNORS
POLICY 31

UNIVERSITY STUDENT CONDUCT CODE
West Virginia University including Potomac State College

Section 1 General:

- 1.1. Scope: The Policy sets forth the West Virginia University Board of Governor's policy regarding Student Conduct for the WVU campuses as noted above.
- 1.2. Authority: W. Va. Code: W.V. Code §18B-1-6; §18B-2A-4.
- 1.3. Effective Date: August 15, 2006; Amended September 8, 2006
- 1.4 Rationale for the University Student Conduct Code

West Virginia University expects that every member of its academic community share its historic and traditional commitment to honesty, integrity, and the search for truth. In addition, West Virginia University is concerned with the living and learning environment of all its students. It is expected that each person will grow to have greater respect for self, others, and property.

Students and student organizations are required to engage in responsible social conduct that reflects credit upon the University community and to model good citizenship in any community.

It is further expected that every member of the academic community will respect the democratic process, a society based on law, and the basic tenets on which our country was founded. All students at West Virginia University are citizens of the larger community, and as such are free to exercise their fundamental and constitutional rights. Rights and responsibilities under local, state, and national law are neither abridged nor extended because of student status, and each student must be mindful of his/her responsibility in this regard.

The university will not request special consideration for students charged with violations of a city, county, or state law on the basis of their status as students, nor will prosecution by federal, state, or local authorities necessarily preclude disciplinary action by the university.

Students charged with violations of the conduct code will be provided substantive and procedural due process and the right of appeal. Their right to be treated with respect and dignity will be protected.

When a student is charged with a specific violation, the university will employ procedures for determining if the charge is fair and accurate. This document enumerates and explains specific procedures used in determining the fairness and accuracy of such charges and the sanctions which might be imposed if the charges are found to be true.

Opportunities for participation in the process and equality of treatment are afforded all students, irrespective of race, religion, age, sex, handicap, or national origin. To ensure this, state and federal regulations and the guidelines and requirements of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act and Title IX of the Higher Education Act of 1972 are followed.

The mission of West Virginia University, as further elaborated in its mission statement, is to, among other things, educate its members and prepare them for responsible and full participation in society. In implementing this Code, the university is not seeking to be punitive or adversarial. The collegiate nature of the educational mission requires that all members of the college community unite to administer and support this Code and to suggest change and improvement as necessary.

Article IV: Student Conduct Code Policies

A. Charges and Hearings

1. Any member of the University community may file charges against any student for misconduct. Charges shall be prepared in writing and directed to the Student Code Administrator. Any charge should be submitted as soon as possible after the event takes place or the discovery of the same, but in no event later than ninety (90) days after the event takes place or the discovery of the same.
2. In cases where suspension or expulsion is a possible outcome, the Student Code Administrator shall refer the case to the Student Conduct Board. In all other cases, the Student Code Administrator shall seek to determine whether the charges can be disposed of administratively by mutual consent or refer the matter to the Student Conduct Board. In the event that the charges are disposed of by mutual consent, that decision shall be final and there shall be no subsequent proceedings.
3. All charges shall be presented by the Student Code Administrator to the Accused Student in written form. Unless the matter is disposed of administratively pursuant to IV, A, 2 above, a time shall be set by the Student Code Administrator for a hearing, not fewer than five nor more than fifteen calendar days after the student has been notified. Maximum time limits for scheduling of hearings may be extended at the discretion of the Student Code Administrator, where adherence to such limits would be impracticable.
4. Hearings shall be conducted by the Student Conduct Board according to the following guidelines except as provided by article IV (A)(7) below:
 - a. Hearings shall be conducted in private except as otherwise authorized by the Student Code Administrator.
 - b. The Complainant, Accused Student and their advisors, if any, shall be allowed to attend the entire portion of the Student Conduct Board Hearing at which information is received (excluding deliberation). Admission of any other person to the Student Conduct Board Hearing shall be at the discretion of the Student Conduct Board and/or the Student Code Administrator.
 - c. In hearings involving more than one Accused Student, the chairperson of the Student Conduct Board, in his or her discretion, may permit the hearings concerning each student to be conducted separately.
 - d. The Complainant and the accused shall each have the right to bring, at his or her own expense, an advisor to the hearing. Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein, the advisor must be a member of the University community. Each of the Complainant and the Accused Student is responsible for presenting his or her own case and, except as otherwise expressly set forth herein, advisors are not permitted to speak or to participate directly in any hearing before a Student Conduct Board. In cases where expulsion is likely to be sought, the advisor may be an attorney who may directly participate in the hearing, provided the Student Code Administrator is notified

- of such at least two weekdays in advance of the hearing. A student should select as an advisor a person whose schedule allows attendance at the scheduled date and time for the Student Conduct Board Hearing because delays will not normally be allowed due to the scheduling conflicts of an advisor.
- e. The Complainant, the Accused and the Student Conduct Board may arrange for witnesses to present pertinent information to the Student Conduct Board. The University will make all reasonable efforts to arrange the attendance of relevant witnesses who are identified by the Complainant, Accused Student and/or Student Conduct Board at least two weekdays prior to the Student Conduct Board Hearing. The Complainant, the Accused and the Student Conduct Board may ask relevant questions to a witness, or a party to the hearing. This will be conducted in a format identified by the chairperson of the Student Conduct Board. The chairperson of the Student Conduct Board shall have the authority to decide any questions regarding relevancy or admissibility that may arise during the hearing.
 - f. Pertinent records, exhibits, and written statements may be accepted as evidence for consideration by a Student Conduct Board at the discretion of the chairperson.
 - g. All procedural questions are subject to the final decision of the chairperson of the Student Conduct Board.
 - h. After the hearing, the Student Conduct Board shall determine, by majority vote, whether the student has violated each section of the Student Code for which the student has been charged.
 - i. In cases where expulsion is likely to be sought, the Student Conduct Board's determination shall be made on the basis of whether there is clear and convincing evidence that the Accused Student violated the Student Code. For all other cases, such determination shall be made on the basis of whether it is more likely than not that the Accused Student violated the Student Code.
 - j. This Code prescribes the rules of process, procedure and evidence applicable to Student Code proceedings. Such proceedings shall not be subject to federal, state or local rules of process, procedure and evidence, such as are applied in criminal or civil court. The Vice President for Student Affairs or his/her designee shall have the authority to develop guidelines related to such proceedings, to the extent not inconsistent with this Code. Similarly, the chairperson of the Student Conduct Board shall have the authority to determine questions of process, procedure and evidence at a hearing, in a manner not inconsistent with the rules and guidelines referenced above.
5. There shall be a single record, such as a tape recording or summary notes, of all Student Conduct Board Hearings before a Student Conduct Board (not including deliberations). Deliberations shall not be recorded. The record shall be the property of the University. Access thereto shall be provided only in compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (20 U.S.C. 1232g), and in accordance with any other

- applicable terms set forth by the Vice President for Student Affairs or his/her designee.
6. Except in the case of a student charged with failing to obey the summons of a Student Conduct Board or University official, no student may be found to have violated the Student Code solely because the student failed to appear before a Student Conduct Board. In all cases, the evidence in support of the charges shall be presented and considered.
 7. The Student Conduct Board may accommodate concerns for the personal safety and/or well-being of the Complainant, Accused Student, and/or a witness during the hearing by providing separate facilities, by using a visual screen, and/or by permitting participation by videophone, closed circuit television, video conferencing, videotape , or other means, where and as determined in the sole judgment of the Vice President of Student Affairs or his/her designee to be appropriate.
 8. If the charge involves an organization allegedly engaged in unlawful activity, the case may be referred to the Office of Student Organization Services. Procedures which may be followed in such instances will be identified by that office. If in the judgment of the Assistant Dean of Student Organizations, individual members of any such organization are particularly involved in an allegation, charges against the individuals may be brought and heard simultaneously with charges against the organization.

2. More than one of the sanctions listed above may be imposed for any single violation.
 3. Other than University expulsion, revocation or withholding of a degree, or the grade of unforgivable failure, disciplinary sanctions imposed hereunder shall not be made part of the student’s permanent academic record, but shall become part of the student’s disciplinary record. Upon graduation, the student’s disciplinary record may be expunged of disciplinary actions other than residence hall expulsion, University suspension, University expulsion, revocation or withholding of a degree, or the grade of unforgivable failure, upon application to the Student Code Administrator. 3. The interim suspension does not replace the regular process, which shall proceed on the normal schedule, up to and through a Student Conduct Board Hearing, if required.

D. Appeals

1. A decision reached by the Student Conduct Board concerning acts of academic dishonesty, as described in III, B, 1, a, b and c of this Code, may be appealed by Accused Students or Complainants to the University Provost or his/her designee within five (5) school days of the decision. All other decisions or sanctions, including those concerning violations of III, B, 1, c which do not involve academic dishonesty, may be appealed by Accused Students or Complainants to the Vice President of Student Affairs or his/her designee within five (5) school days of the decision. Such appeals shall be in writing and shall be delivered to the Student Code Administrator or his or her designee.
2. Except as required to explain the basis of new evidence, an appeal shall be limited to review of the record of the initial hearing and supporting documents for one or more of the following purposes:
 - a. To determine whether jurisdiction as established in the Student Code was properly asserted.
 - b. To determine whether the original hearing was conducted fairly in light of the charges and evidence presented, and in conformity with prescribed procedures giving the complaining party a reasonable opportunity to prepare and present evidence that the Student Code was violated, and giving the Accused Student a reasonable opportunity to prepare and to present a rebuttal of those allegations.
 - c. To determine whether the decision reached regarding the Accused Student was based on substantial evidence, that is, whether the facts in the case were sufficient to establish that a violation of the Student Code occurred.
 - d. To determine whether the sanction(s) imposed were appropriate for the violation of the Student Code which the student was found to have committed.
 - e. To consider new evidence, sufficient to alter a decision or other relevant facts not brought out in the original hearing, because such evidence and/or facts were not known to the person appealing at the time of the original hearing.

3. The University Provost or his /her designee, or the Vice President of Student Affairs or his/her designee, as applicable, shall respond to the appeal, and deliver his/her decision thereon, within thirty (30) days of his/her receipt of such appeal, except where adherence to such time period would be impracticable, in which case such time period shall be extended as warranted by the particular circumstances.
4. If an appeal is upheld by the University Provost or his/her designee, or the Vice President of Student Affairs or his/her designee, as applicable, the matter shall be remanded to the original Student Conduct Board and Student Code Administrator for re-opening of the hearing to allow reconsideration of the original determination and/or sanction(s). If an appeal is not upheld by the University Provost or his/her designee, or the Vice President of Student Affairs or his/her designee, as applicable, the matter shall be considered final and binding upon all involved.
5. In cases involving appeals by students accused of violating the Student Code, review of the sanction by the University Provost or his/her designee, or the Vice President of Student Affairs or his/her designee, as applicable, may not result in more severe sanction(s) for the Accused Student.

Article V: Interpretation and Revision

- A. Any question of interpretation regarding the Student Code shall be referred to the Vice President of Student Affairs or his or her designee for final determination.
- B. The Student Code shall be reviewed and/or revised under the direction of the Student Code Administrator.

5. Members of review bodies shall serve as models for students by upholding university regulations and performing their duties in an exemplary manner. Any such member found guilty of violating a university policy or regulation is subject to temporary suspension from the review body for a specific time, is ineligible to participate in the body's duties, and must reapply for membership through established procedures.
6. Before any hearing, the chairperson of the hearing board is obligated to ask if any hearing board member has prior knowledge about the case, Complainant or student charged which will impair his/her ability to render an impartial decision. It is the responsibility of the hearing board member to make the chairperson aware of any personal relationship with the Complainant or student charged (e.g., kinship, close friendship, fraternal, or organizational affiliation). A hearing board member with any such knowledge or relationship shall recuse himself/herself from the applicable case. Any disputes or questions regarding recusal shall be resolved by the chairperson of the hearing board.
7. Each member of the hearing board will make the chairperson aware of any concurrent college service in which she/he is engaged which may present a conflict of interest. The existence of such conflict of interest shall be determined by the chairperson in consultation with other members of the hearing body in session and the member will be excused from hearing and deliberating in case of conflict, or from membership if the conflict is general.
