

Program Curriculum:

Basic Requirements

BIOS 601	Applied Biostatistics	3 credits
BIOS 602	Applied Biostatistics Lab	1 credit
HPML 601	Foundations of Health Policy	3 credits
C&I 689	Cultural Diversity in the Classroom	3 credits
DENT 687	Research Methods	1 credits
DTHY 678	Dental Hygiene Teaching Methods	2 credits
DTHY 679	Dental Hygiene Clinical Evaluation	2 credits
DTHY 680	Critical Issues in Health Care	3 credits
DTHY 690	Teaching Practicum	1 credit
DTHY 697	Research	6 credits
DTHY 698	Thesis	1 credits
		26 credits

Elective Areas (DTHY, DENT, B&E, EDP, CHPR, HRE) 11 credits
Total 37 credits

Dental Hygiene 691 and Dentistry 791 Courses

Courses taught by the School of:

Business and Economics

Educational Psychology

Medicine (Community Health Promotion) and the

Multidisciplinary Students Program

Human Resources and Education

Graduate Courses:

Dental Hygiene (DTHY)

680. Critical Issues in Health Care 1. I. 3 hr. PR: Graduate standing and consent. Examination of the critical environmental issues affecting the future of health care; particular impact on rural oral health care trends will form major focus. Dental hygiene clinical practice is also included.

681. Dental Hygiene Seminar and Practice 2. II. 3 hr. PR: DTHY 380. Performance of expanded dental hygiene practice with emphasis on periodontal functions. Laboratory and clinical performance of these functions are also included.

690. Teaching Practicum. 1-6 hrs. PR: Consent. Supervised practice in college teaching of dental hygiene.

697. Research. I, II, S. 1-15 hrs. PR: Consent. Research activities leading to a thesis, problem report,

research paper, or equivalent scholarly project.